

Water Poem

Can you hear the water splashing?

Can you hear the waves crashing?

I run through pipes

And I am the essence of life.

I'm what makes the sea.

It's quite refreshing to drink me.

You can boil me in a pan

Water is great and that's what I am!

By Lizzie Messenger 3Q